Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 16 January 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The remarks filed on January 16, 2007 have been considered but is ineffective to overcome the prior art reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Lesser et al.(EP1013554 a1) as noted in the previous Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 4, 9, 11, 13, 16 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lesser (EP1013554 A1) in view of Bretti (4,908,911) as noted in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed January 16, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's remarks are drawn to the failure of the prior art reference, Lesser et al. to disclose a sensor, which senses the presence of a lock. Applicant further argues that the prior art, Lesser fails to disclose or fairly suggest a sensor that engages or directly contacts the lock...and that any sensor in the Lesser et al patent does not have a part which senses the lock. In response to Applicant's remarks that Lesser fails to disclose a sensor that engages or directly contacts the lock. Examiner notes that such limitation is not positively recited within the parent/independent claim, thus Applicant is arguing criticality not positively recited. Claim 1 as written states only "a lock having a sensor..." there is no positive recitation of any structure as it relates to the sensor. Therefore, in the broadest reasonable interpretation, Lesser clearly discloses a sensor or means for sensing the lock via a sensor and coding system wherein the coding system signals received from the sensor are compared for the presence of a lock. In reply to Applicants remarks regarding the failure of prior art, Lesser to disclose "a sensor, which senses the presence of a lock", the claim is silent to any structure necessary to carry out the functional recitation of "sensing a lock..." therefore any sensor, i.e., sensor and coding system can sense the presence of a lock. Examiner further notes that during Lesser's operation, includes sensing and then positioning a lock, Applicant argues that this process is does not correlate to the claimed invention because it is "after the position that the lock is placed in position", this is not found persuasive, because Applicant is arguing criticality of a method step in an apparatus claim. Method/process steps are not given patentable weight within an apparatus claim therefore the step order, i.e., before, after, is not patentable in the apparatus claim(s).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

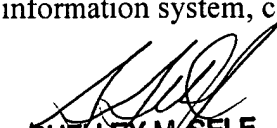

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
